

DOWN AT THE CROSSROADS:

A Journey in Music, Story, and Leadership

The history of cities and civilization begins with the truth of The Crossroads.

These intersections of North, South, East, and West became the places where people settled and built communities. Crossroads bring new beginnings and transformational opportunities.

IN THE MISSISSIPPI DELTA, the Crossroads are a place of legend, the literal birthplace of American Blues music—and rock and roll.

WE ARE AT A SIGNIFICANT CROSSROADS NOW—as professionals, companies, and consumers face a new definition of what's "normal."

The Crossroads demands we define our values, what we're all about. They challenge us to come face to face with our fears and worries. They represent a test of faith and an incredible opportunity to build a new future. And for all of us individually, the Crossroads stand as an icon for the moments in life where choices are made, and transformations unfold.

Join hit songwriter and recording artist Steve Azar and Randy Harrington Ph.D. for a one-of-a-kind performance experience that embraces the power of music and story to connect the past to the future we are building together. For Azar, music is a way to build community and discover how our hearts and souls lead us on the path. For Harrington, everyday stories offer important clues to making smart choices about where we should best use our limited time and resources.

THERE'S NOTHING ELSE LIKE IT

Crossroads is an interactive 90-minute performance experience that combines live original music, multi-media presentations, profound and funny storytelling, and zero PowerPoint slides. Participants will work through their own personal "Road Map" and dig into their own sense of intuition and values to determine what's right and what's next. Participants will define:
